Brief Description of the Project:

The aim of this project is to provide basic life skills to the inmates at the Belize Central Prison. The program will provide basic skills in the areas of hygiene, budgeting, gardening, parenting, HIV and AIDS, civics, and anger management. A manual will be produced, and provided to each inmate as part of the program. This can be used by the inmates after they have left the prison system. All current and new inmates will receive the basic life skill training.

Beneficiaries:

1500 inmates at the Belize Central Prison

Local Rotarian Participation: The Rotarians who are on the prison board will implement the program. Other Rotarians from the club will be involved in producing the manual, and in teaching of some of the skills.
