Brief Description of the Project:

Provision of a fuel-efficient 12 or 14-passenger van to transport Child Care Center children and employees safely to and from the Center as required -for school, medical treatment, field trips, and other recreational and motivational activities.

Beneficiaries:

Approximately 50 abused or abandoned children, ranging in age from a few months, to 18 years. These kids reside at the Dorothy Menzies Child Care Center until they are adopted, or can be put in the care of a relative, or reach the age of 18.

Local Rotarian Participation:

Belize Rotarians will be responsible for purchasing the van, and will ensure proper handing over to the Child Care Center. Belize Rotarians will sign a M.O.U. with the Center to clarify the use of the van only for use as above.
